
YOUR STORY

Developing Your Compelling Story

Part 1

Your Background

"Where did you come from?"

Share who you are, what you did before this business, and what life looked like.

Part 2

Your Dissatisfaction

"What were you fed up with?"

What wasn't working? The gap between where you were and where you wanted to be.

Part 3

Your Search

"What were you looking for?"

Before this business, what were you already thinking about? A side income? More time?

Part 4

Your Discovery — WHO Showed You

"Who introduced you to the business?"

Name them. Edify them. Share what about that person made you listen. This is the most important part.

Part 5

Your Vision

"Where are you headed?"

What does the future look like because of this business? Paint the picture of what's possible.

Compelling Story vs. Elevator Pitch

Your Compelling Story (2–3 min): All 5 parts. Used in QIs, one-on-ones, and team meetings.

Your Elevator Pitch (30–60 sec): Quick, curiosity-driven. Used in casual encounters and social events.

Know when to use which. Read the environment, the timing, and the context. Both are essential. Practice both.
